It is 1944 and World War II is reaching its climax. The Allies are poised to invade France and finally defeat the German army. But in Walmington-on-Sea morale amongst the Home Guard is low. Their new mission then - to patrol the Dover army base - is a great chance to revive spirits and reputation, that is until glamorous journalist Rose Winters arrives, setting the pulses racing and putting the local women on red alert. 1h 40min, Stars: Mark Tandy, Russell Balogh,

Extraordinary new animated feature from Charlie Kaufman, deals with loneliness, longing and despair in a profound, subtle way that few live-action dramas can match. The film follows a lonely customer service expert (voiced by David Thewlis) who perceives everyone (Tom Noonan) as identical until he meets a unique woman (Jennifer Jason Leigh) in a Cincinnati hotel. 1h 30 min, Stars: David Thewlis, Jennifer Jason Leigh, Tom Noonan

In this searing drama, Son of Saul begins with something other movies would hardly dare approach even at the very end – the gas chamber itself. A concentration camp inmate tasked with burning the dead discovers the body of his young son, and must choose between participating in the clandestine uprising being planned among the prisoners, or securing a proper Jewish burial for his child. 1 hr 47 mins. Stars: Géza Röhriq, Levente Molnár, Urs Rechn

In this adaptation of the novel "The Price of Salt" by Patricia Highsmith, Therese, a young department-store clerk in 1950s Manhattan, meets Carol, a beautiful older woman stuck in a depressing marriage of convenience. As their bond deepens and they become romantically involved, Carol finds the strength to leave her husband. Her spouse starts to raise questions about her fitness as a mother when he realizes that Carol's relationships with her best friend Abby and Therese are more than just friendships. 1hr 58 mins. Stars: Cate Blanchett, Rooney Mara, Sarah Paulson

On the losing side of a civil war in Sri Lanka, a Tamil soldier poses as the husband and father of two other refugees in order to escape their ravaged homeland. Arriving in France, the makeshift "family" sets about establishing a new life-only to find themselves once again embroiled in violence on the mean streets of Paris. A heartrending saga of three strangers united by circumstance and struggle, Dheepan is both a tour-de-force thriller. 1hr 55 mins. Stars: Jesuthasan Antonythasan, Kalieaswari Srinivasan, Claudine Vinasithamby

20th March 99 Homes

Dir: Ramin Bahrani, 2015

Set amidst the backdrop of the 2008 housing market catastrophe, Dennis Nash, a hard-working and honest man, can't save his family home despite his best efforts. Thrown to the streets with alarming precision by real estate shark Mike Carver, Dennis, out of work and luck, is given a unique opportunity – to join Carver's crew and put others through the harrowing ordeal done to him in order to earn back what's his. 1hr 52min, Stars: Andrew Garfield, Michael Shannon, Laura Dern

27th March The Brand New Testament

Dir: Jaco Van Dormael, 2015,
Subtitles

God exists, and He's a jerk. He lives in a high-rise apartment in Brussels and never gets out of His pyjamas. He takes sadistic delight in dreaming up new "laws" to torment humanity and He's a petty tyrant to His wife and ten-year-old daughter, Ea. Ea, after escaping and with her Father in pursuit, gathers apostles and writes her own New Testament to try to fix the mess her Father has made of humanity. 1h 54 min, Stars: Pili Groyne, Benoît Poelvoorde, Catherine Deneuve

3rd April Victoria

Dir: Sebastian Schipper,
2015

After leaving the club in the wee hours of the morning to work at a local cafe, Victoria runs into a pack of young men, who seem intent on wooing her. The best-looking of the group, Sonne (Frederick Lau), succeeds, and Victoria to drop her prior plans to drink with them on a nearby rooftop. Shot over two hours in a single, dazzling take, Victoria is one of the year's most impressive technical achievements. 2 hr 18 mins. Stars: Laia Costa, Frederick Lau, Franz Rogowski

10th April Mustang

Dir: Deniz Gamze Ergüven,
2015 Subtitles

Early summer in a village in Northern Turkey, five free-spirited teenaged sisters splash about on the beach with their male classmates. Though their games are merely innocent fun, a neighbour passes by and reports what she considers to be illicit behavior to the girls' family. The family overreacts, removing all "instruments of corruption," such as cell phones and computers, and essentially imprisoning the girls, subjecting them to endless lessons in housework in preparation for them to become brides. 1hr 37 mins. Stars: Günes Sensoy, Doga Zeynep Doguslu, Tugba Sunguroglu
