Seven is closed 1st - 11th January

13th Jan | Colour of Light

Music

Colour of Light are a guitar, mandolin, banjo, double bass and harmonica ensemble who blend folk, blues, bluegrass and classical influences into their own unique sound.

Their finely crafted original songs delivered by three diverse singer-songwriters combine protest, reflection and celebration. As individuals these musicians have performed at Glastonbury and Latitude Festivals, have been played on BBC 6 Music, and BBC Radio 4 and have over 450,000 Spotify plays.

4pm-6pm PWYF

14th Jan | Edison Herbert Quartet

Music

Guitarist Edison Herbert is a Leeds favourite. He plays from the heart, likes to mix things up, blending standards with his own compositions. Mentored by George Benson, his Quartet has a reputation for their engaging grooves, sensitive ballads & for shedding fresh light on the familiar.

1.30pm-4pm £12/10conc., under-16s free

17th Jan | Ron Burnett Rush Hour Jazz

Music

York trombonist and singer Ron Burnett brings his traditional jazz and swing band to delight rush hour jazz at Seven Arts bar. His music covers a range from 1920s to 1990s; Bix, Louis Prima, Fats Waller, Louis Jordan, and such maverick choices as Paul Simon's Take Me To The Mardi Gras.

20th Jan | Little Mistakes

Music

Little Mistakes are an acoustic trio playing country, folk and bluegrass originals and covers. These musicians have been active for many years on the Leeds music scene, playing in a variety of styles in many different bands, including local Chapel Allerton favourites 'The Moonshine Five'.

4pm-6pm PWYF

21st Jan | Ancient Infinity Orchestra

Music

A welcome return to Seven for this 14-strong ensemble led by double-bassist Ozzy Moysey. Their Gondwana Records debut 'River of Light' drinks deep from the well of spiritual jazz and is especially inspired by the sounds of Pharoah Sanders, Alice and John Coltrane.

This is also communal music made by friends, which offers a deep celebration of togetherness and of music-making. It's confidently deep music, moving and meditative, and Ozzy draws on philosophy and nature as well as musical inspirations to foster a focus on giving and sharing beautiful things with one another and with the listener.

1.30pm-4pm £12/10conc., under-16s free

24th Jan | The Last Days

Film

In late 1944, even as they faced imminent defeat, the Nazis expended enormous resources to kill or deport over 425,000 Jews during the "cleansing" of Hungary. This Oscar-winning documentary, executive produced by Steven Spielberg, focuses on the plight of five Hungarian Jews who survived imprisonment in Auschwitz.

Dir. James Moll, 1998, US, 1hr 27min

This Holocaust Memorial Day screening is organised by Leeds City Council.

7pm PWYF

25th Jan | Ronnie Bottomley's Last Ever Big Band
